About Us

Shree Ram Industries is a leading supplier and manufacturer of superior quality plastic storage, material handling and waste management solutions to cater the wide range of needs in industrial, commercial, agricultural and logistics applications. We are dedicated to quality and innovation, and provide a complete product line of Jumbo Heavy Duty Crates, Super Jumbo Crates, Front Partly Open Storage Bins, Customized Plastic Crates, Wheel Based Waste Bins and a variety of other special products. We make our products easy to store, easy to move and easy to inventory ensuring that they are durable and efficient to operate. Using state-of-the-art manufacturing techniques and quality components, we always produce products that can be depended on to function in harsh working conditions.

High quality is at the heart of our work. All of these products are produced with meticulous care for strength, dimensional accuracy and long life. We know that storage and handling equipment is essential to the day-to-day business and make it a point to ensure our products deliver the highest possible load-bearing capacity, durability and reliability. The tight quality control measures we have in place ensure consistency across all of our products, and complete satisfaction with our customers.
