About Us

With a dream to prosper and earn a stand among the top performing companies of the nation, Mr. Rashmikanth Bhai started the company, along with a team to form and cater best quality desiccant products. Inspiration to grow and dedication at work have been the topmost elements which have now proven success and prosperity of our company with continuous thrives. We are widely designated as one of the most reliable Manufacturer and Exporter, which portrays only integrity in every task that is executed in-house. The array of desiccant that our company serves includes Silica Gel Granules, White Silica Gel and Blue Silica Gel in pouches of 1Gmp, 5 Gmp, 25 Gmp, 50 Gmp, 100 Gmp and more on request. The aforesaid offerings are extensively used as a Catalyst, Moisture Absorber and Gas Absorber. Along with the array of silica gel, we cater Disposable Silica Gel Breather, Silica Gel Breather and Air Breather that are demanded by companies to prevent their machinery and industrial plants from dust and moisture.

We, Radhe And Company are a prominent business entity which is operating from Mahesana (Gujarat, India) and serving the customers' demands throughout India. The incorporation of our firm took place in the year 2013, with an aim to extensively cater a wide range of Silica Gel Bags, Silica Gel Sachet, Silica Gel in Indian and international markets. For the aforesaid promise, we backed ourselves in a highly sophisticated facility in which only advanced machines of respective purposes are installed. And those machines are utilized by dexterous personnel for the production and packaging of White and Blue Silica Gel in large numbers. The company is aspired to grow and enhance its capabilities of production with time, along with this we aim to have a large customer base which only contains satisfied individuals.
