We offer Designer Beds and Sofa Sets, delivering stylish and comfortable furniture solutions designed to enhance modern living spaces with elegance and durability.

Luxmi Foam is a well-established name in the furniture industry, delivering comfort-driven solutions since 2000. Based in Ludhiana, Punjab, India, we operate as a manufacturer, service provider, and supplier of quality furniture products. Our company is focused on creating products that combine durability, functionality, and modern aesthetics. With years of experience and a clear understanding of customer preferences, we continue to offer solutions that enhance living spaces with style and comfort.

We specialize in designing and manufacturing sofa sets and designer beds that reflect both elegance and practicality. Our products are crafted to provide superior comfort while maintaining a visually appealing design. Each piece is developed with attention to detail, ensuring that it meets contemporary trends as well as customer expectations. Whether for residential or commercial use, our furniture is created to add value and sophistication to any environment.

Quality craftsmanship is the foundation of our production process. We use carefully selected materials and structured manufacturing methods to ensure strength and long-lasting performance. Every product undergoes quality checks to maintain consistency and reliability. Our focus on precision and detailing allows us to deliver furniture that not only looks refined but also performs efficiently over time.

Customer Satisfaction

Customer satisfaction remains at the core of our business philosophy. We work closely with clients to understand their preferences and deliver solutions that align with their needs. Our commitment to transparency, responsiveness, and consistent quality enables us to build long-term trust. By prioritizing customer requirements, we strive to create products and experiences that exceed expectations.
