About Us

Banking on extensive industry experience, we, Mrida Greens & Development Private Limited, have emerged as one of the foremost manufacturers, suppliers, and exporters in the industry. We deal in a broad range of Onion Extracts, Neem Leaf Extract Powders, Ashoka Extract Powders, Tulsi Extracts, and other products. Hygienically developed at our well-engineered manufacturing unit from the purest raw materials sourced from trusted vendors in the market, the products are of the highest quality. Each product has a pleasing aroma, a longer shelf life, and is highly nutritional. We understand how important it is for an individual to consume the aforesaid products in the right quantity and quality. Therefore, we emphasize ensuring optimum standards of quality across the entire product range.

We make sure that at our organization, customers get the best quality products at the most affordable price. We price all our products as per the leading market rates to avoid losing potential customers and retain existing ones, leading to the rapid growth of the organization.

Following a strict quality control policy, we ensure the delivery of a quality-assured product range. Having been backed by a team of well-qualified quality specialists, we conduct several rounds of quality testing before making the products available on the market. Our professionals examine the products on different industrial parameters, such as shelf life, effectiveness, side effects, nutritional quotient, and many others. Therefore, the products that pass all the rounds and stand clear on all the aforementioned grounds are made ready for dispatch to the market. As a result of the conscious efforts put in by our professionals, we deliver a range of superior-quality Neem Leaf Extract Powders, Ashoka Extract Powders, Tulsi Extracts, Onion Extracts, and other products. Each product exceeds the expectations of our customers, compelling them to choose our products over and over again.
