About Us

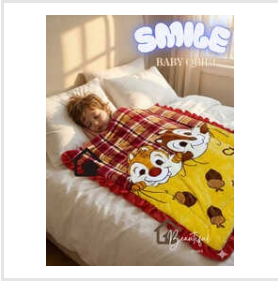

Anjali Home Fashion is a trusted manufacturer, trader, and supplier offering stylish and functional home textile products. Founded in 2005 and located in Panipat, Haryana - one of India's prominent textile hubs we have built a solid presence through consistent product delivery and market-focused operations. Our business philosophy centers on blending design appeal with everyday usability to meet evolving customer expectations. Our product portfolio includes Printed Kids Club Baby Set, Cecelia Printed Comforter, Printed Foot Mat, Ferrari Bed Side Runner and Harmony Bedcover. Each product is developed with attention to visual aesthetics, fabric comfort, and practical application. We emphasize contemporary patterns and balanced color combinations to ensure our offerings align with modern interior preferences across residential and commercial spaces.

We operate with a structured manufacturing and sourcing framework that supports quality consistency and production efficiency. Careful material selection, controlled processing, and systematic finishing practices allow us to maintain defined quality parameters. Our integrated approach as a manufacturer and trader enables us to manage varied order volumes while ensuring reliable availability and timely execution.
