About Us

Creating a strong identity in the market is easy for a corporation that is driven by passion to deliver its customers only trusted quality products & services. We, Famous Engineering Works, are glad to have a strong market identity. Reason behind this lies in our quality based approach in business. As a supplier and trader based company, we are associated with some reputed and certified vendors like Aerial, Origin, Novita, Good Worth, Cruise, Honeywell, etc. These vendors are wholly committed to production of the best products.

We, Famous Engineering Works, are performing business duties with sheer dedication from Mumbai, Maharashtra (India) to win trust of a huge client-base. Our product line that includes Honeywell Air Touch U2 Air Purifier, Portable Air Conditioner, Move Pure Car Air Purifier, etc., is noted for supreme quality. We are partnered with industry best vendors. These vendors indulge in quality based manufacturing work. Since 2000, we have been sharing excellent relationships with vendors and customers due to our team that is honest, qualified and experienced. It will be no wrong to call our team members another big strength after our vendor base because it is our professionals who come up with remarkable business plans and policies, which assist us in taking the company to new heights.
