About Us

Saha Enterprise was established in 2010 with the aim to help individuals and companies in having protection against rain, wind, sun and other external factors by creating superior quality tarpaulin roll, tarpaulin cover and laminated roll. Operating from Kolkata, West Bengal, we have garnered a huge clientele across India for providing highest grade products and excellent services. We are an innovative and flexible company, expanding our business through our unique blend of technology, innovation and sincere efforts of our team. Our products such as HDPE Tarpaulin Roll, Plastic Tarpaulin Sheet, HDPE Tarpaulin Sheet, Laminated Roll and many other products are highly demanding in the market for their quality, make us stand among the top manufacturers. These goods are affordable, lightweight, moisture-resistant and available in great range of colours, sizes, and various high GSM.

In the production procedure of these products, we use high Density Polyethylene, Polypropylene, and Polyethylene(PE), which offer increased strength and durability. In many industrial and residential settings, people use our goods to build temporary structures and protect bulk stock by covering it. To help us source the finest raw materials, we have made connections with the major vendors of the country. Our organization is supported by an effective quality testing unit, which allows us to deliver flawless products to our customers. This quality testing unit possesses the finest digital quality checking system that tests our products against various parameters including the design, strength, looks and finish. To uphold the stringiest quality parameters of the industry, this unit makes sure to check the raw materials, prior to providing it to manufacturing team for developing the range.
