About Us

Penurunan Seal India is a manufacturer and supplier of mechanical sealing solutions based in Pune, Maharashtra, India. Established in 2016, we have focused on developing and supplying dependable sealing products designed to support the demanding requirements of industrial equipment and rotating machinery. Our product portfolio covers a broad range of mechanical seals, including Dry Running Seals, Cartridge Seals, Welded Metal Bellow Seals, Metal Bellow Seals, Wave Spring Seals, System Support Seals, Conical Spring Seals, and Bellow Seals. By offering multiple sealing technologies, we aim to serve different equipment configurations, operating conditions, and industrial applications.

At Penurunan Seal India, we understand that a mechanical seal is more than an individual component. It plays an important role in controlling leakage, protecting equipment, maintaining operational efficiency, and supporting reliable plant performance. Our approach therefore combines product knowledge, application understanding, and a commitment to consistent manufacturing and supply.
