About Us

BR Packaging is a leading manufacturer, supplier, and exporter that provides customers all over the world with a range of quality bags. This includes PP Woven Bags, Fibc PP Jumbo Bags, Plastic LDPE Shrink Film, Printed HDPE Bag, Designer Paper Carry Bags, and many more. We have an advanced infrastructural base that includes structural units such as procurement, manufacturing, quality controlling, research & development, warehousing, packaging, etc. All these units are equipped with the latest machines, equipment, and tools that help us to manufacture a variety of products.

Additionally, we have a team of highly experienced and skilled professionals. By working in close coordination, our professionals meet the requirements of clients easily and faster. Also, we organize many important training sessions and seminars for our team to increase their skills and knowledge. Our infrastructure is constructed over a wide area of land and is segregated into specialized units like procurement, production, quality control, research & development, warehouse & packaging, etc. We have also installed our infrastructure with hi-tech machines and the most advanced technology at our production unit to manufacture excellent quality products in a very short period of time. Our warehousing team takes preventative measures to prevent any kind of damage to the offered products.
