About Us

We, Greenray Electricals, came into existence in the year 2010 and are proud to introduce ourselves as a respectable manufacturer, wholesaler and distributor of electrical industry. Our company's motive is to contribute towards the growth and betterment of the electrical industry and so we bring forth world-class quality LED Solutions. In the recent times LED Lights have been considered the most advanced technical developments of the lighting/ electrical industry due to the various advantages it serves over general lightings.

The diverse range of LED offered by us include LED Lights, LED Bulbs, LED Street Lights, Led Flood Light, LED High Bay Light, LED Panel Light and many more. LED's are generally small & compact but solid goods due to the use of A-grade materials in their manufacturing. They are extremely energy efficient, consumes less power and have a long operational life which differentiates it from traditional incandescent light bulbs. Our proprietor Mr. Ankit Patel, in depth study and experience of the LED industry has helped us achieved immense success in our industry.
