About Us

Since 2005, Ketan Corporation, has built a solid reputation as a trusted exporter and trader of an excellent selection of industrial bearings. Double Row Ball Bearing, Ball Bearings Cages, Roller Followers Bearing, Bearing Rod End, etc. are in our product line. The material used to create the product by our partners is of the highest quality, which ensures that the finished product will perform flawlessly on the market.

We have skilled individuals who complete the tasks very effectively. We provide the highest-quality items at the most competitive pricing by diligently working together with our vendors and staff. We have built a sizable warehouse to properly store all of these industrial bearings. Within the stated time range, our clients can purchase these industrial bearings from us in large quantities. Our mentor, Mr. Ketan Shah, is in charge of the business operations. He possesses the depth of knowledge that enables us to deliver industrial bearings that are the ideal fusion of innovation and technology.
