About Us

Making a big name in this competitive market is not easy. And in the race of becoming successful many companies adopt unethical means. However, customers are not fool and they well-understand all the tactics. Taking this aspect into consideration, we, Xenus Global India, came into existence as a manufacturer and trader of LED products. We also emerged with the vision of becoming successful just like other companies but our work culture is entirely different from them. Our belief is to never make any compromise with our business ethics because we want to make a long term relations with our clients. To win the hearts of our clients, we offer them Designer Wall Light, Advertising LED Display Screen, Led Chandelier Light, Multi Color LED Chandelier, LED Solar Street Light, Fort Garden Lighting, etc., of unparalleled quality. Moreover, each one of these is sold at highly affordable prices so that a large number of people can shift from conventional lights to LEDs.

Noida, Uttar Pradesh, India established Xenus Global India is growing slowly and steadily in this competitive business world by offering only quality-assured range of High Power LED Flood Lights, Multi Color LED Chandelier, LED Solar Street Light and more to our customers at wholesale price. Since our commencement, we have been operating with the same enthusiasm and determination to grow even stronger and become a business entity that customers can blindly trust not only within the boundaries of our domestic market but all over the globe. Our product affordability is another reason that is always appreciated by our customers.
