About Us

Our history dates back to 1985 when our founder established Sundaram Multi Pap Limited to provide high-quality stationery products. We initially faced challenges in building a client base and trust to stand or excel in the market. With decades of experience, we have continuously grown in the market while facing changing market trends. Today, we stand as the trusted manufacturer and wholesaler of stationery products such as Long Notebook, Scribbling Pad, A4 Printed College Notebook, and Writing Notebook, among others. Since we specialize in offering high-quality stationery products, our customers are assured of receiving the best products on their budgets. Our products are extensively used in corporate, school, and similar settings where writing materials are needed. Our best business part is that all our products are manufactured under our brand name, Sundaram, which is synonymous with trust, reliability, and quality.

With the changing times, a lot has changed. Today, people only look for brands and prefer buying branded products. For this reason, we, Sundaram Multi Pap Limited from Mumbai, Maharashtra, launched our brand Sundaram. Under this, we supply our products such as A4 College Notebook, College Writing Notebook, Student Long Notebook, etc. In the future, we will be expanding our product line. We have a team of 175 employees backed by which we always fulfil the demands of our customers on time. We have different union heads and plant heads to manage these many people. Besides, we have a widespread supply chain network of 15,000 distributors and dealers.
