Visitor Analysis

“CVS has been growing hand in hand with the Chinese vending and self-service industries for many years. We believe that the future of these industries is bright and hopeful, and we hope more and more people join us for a brighter future.”
 —— Mr. Zhang, General Manager of Dalian Fuji Bingshan

“Thanks for the professional platform that CVS provides, we’ve taken advantage of this platform to showcase our new products and technologies, while also meeting more partners and clients. We hope that this show becomes more and more successful!”
 —— Mr. Zhang, General Manager of Qingdao AUCMA

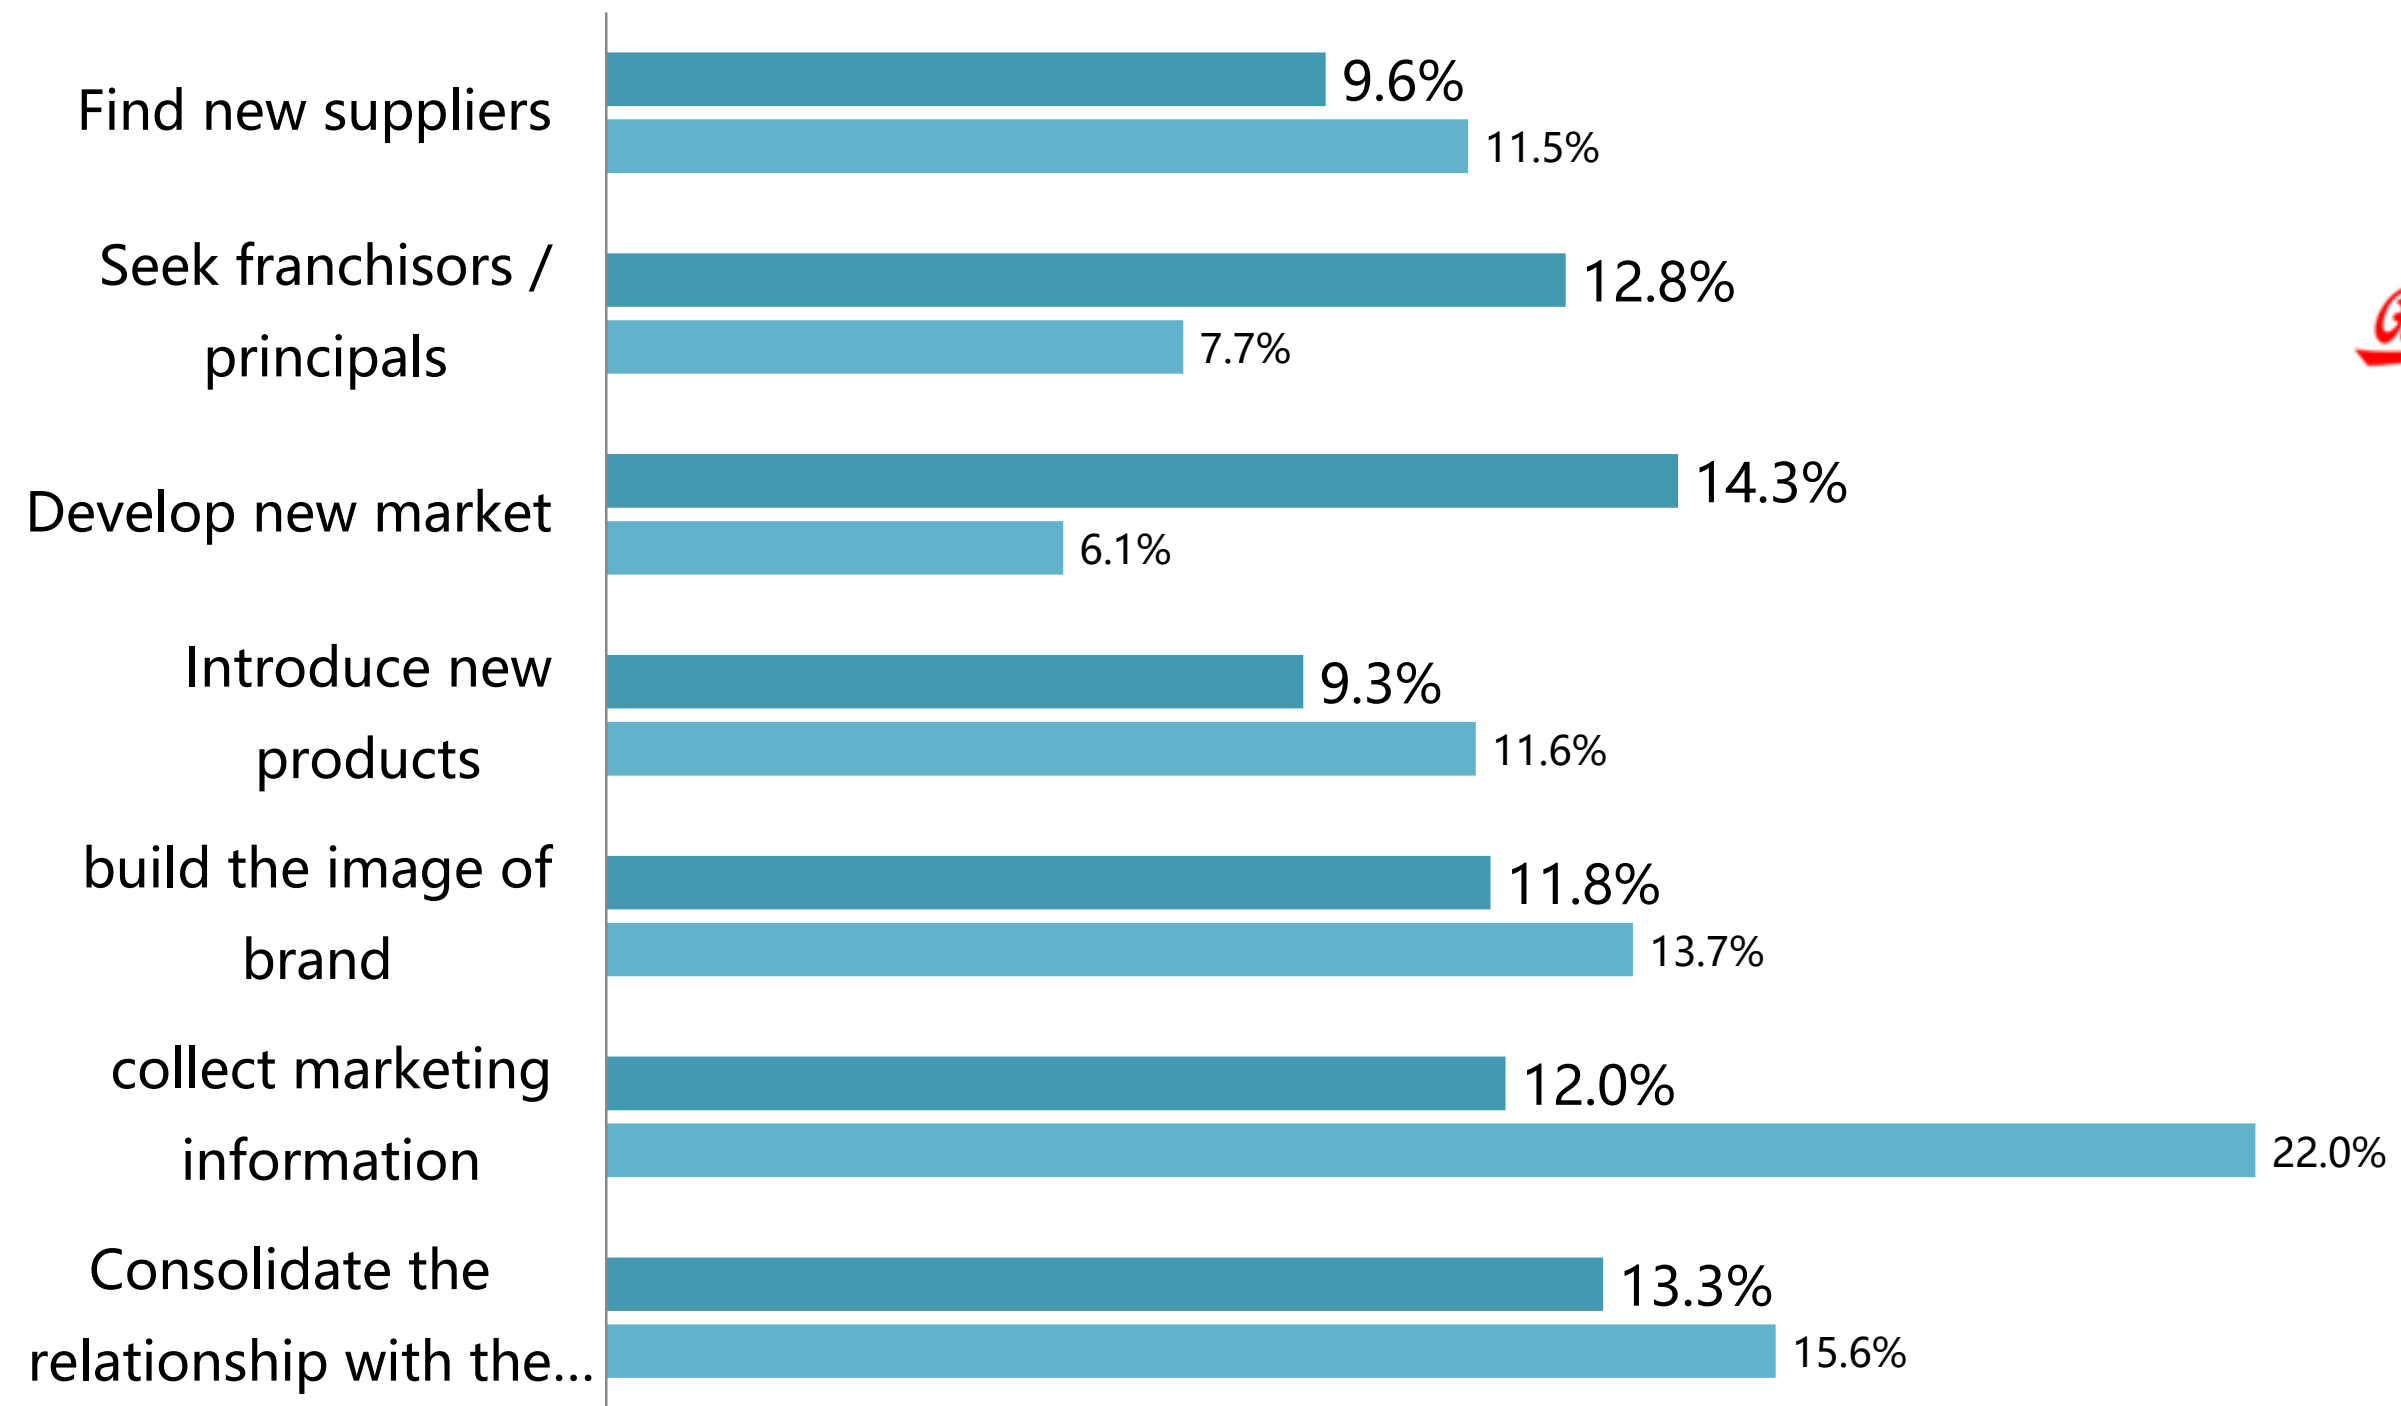

“2017 China International Self-service, Kiosk & Vending Show (CVS), to promote corporate image is our main purpose, hope that the majority of friends know snow, and ultimately choose snow.”
 —— Mr. Zhou, General Manager of JSBS

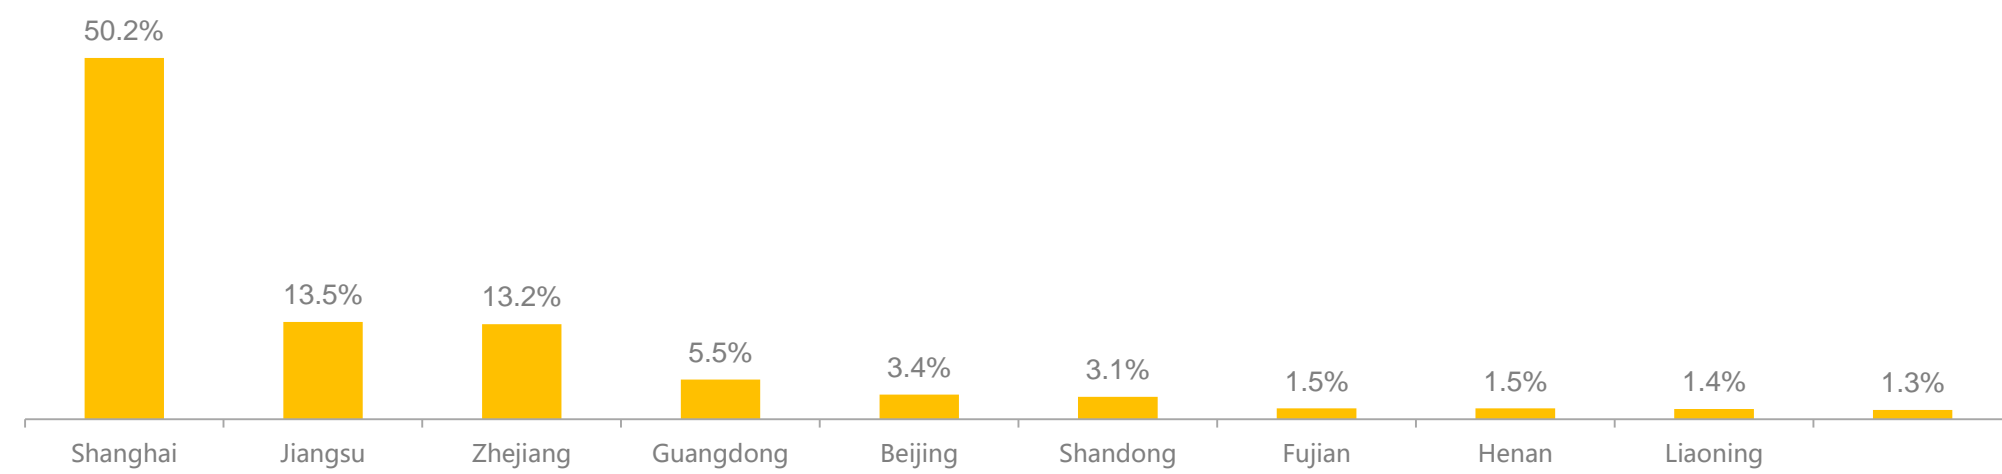

“Based in East China, CVS is one of the most professional shows dedicated to the vending and self-service industries in the world. It is the best platform for communicating, showcasing, networking and gathering, thereby promoting the development of the whole industry. The vending industry is developing rapidly, and is expected to grow into the industry with the greatest investment potential in China within the next few years. We will pay more attention to the investment and invitation of vending machines, and look forward to greater mutual success with all practitioners.”
 —— Mr. Luo, Chairman of the board of Hunan TCN Vending

Voice of the Visitor

“This is my first visit to this show. As our company is a food manufacturer, I want to collect information about vending machine manufacturers and operators, and seek cooperation. This is a very professional platform with a huge audience, and we’ve found intentional partners already.”

— Overseas Visitor from Germany

“CVS is the most professional show dedicated to the vending and self-service industries in China. I’ve visited this show for years, to learn the trends in these industries. The show has been successful again this year, with more new products and a full range of exhibits for the industry chain. I’ve deeply experienced the convenience that vending and self-service technologies have brought us, and how they lead the new trends of consumption.”

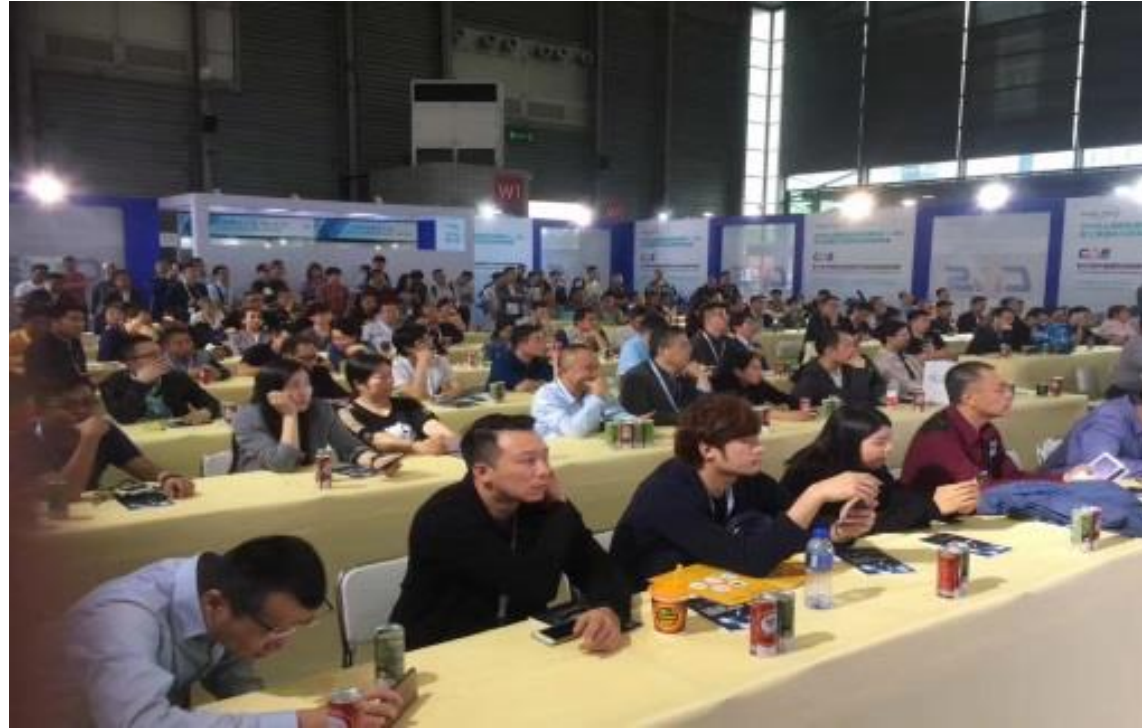

— Ms. Deng, Engineer from Nestle

“I am from Egypt and I learned about CVS on the internet. I was looking for juice vending machines and I’ve found the products I need. This is the most professional show I’ve ever visited, a very good show.”
