wire China 2018 - International Wire & Cable Industry Trade Fair
Tube China 2018 - International Tube & Pipe Industry Trade Fair
Fastener Shanghai 2018 - Shanghai Fastener & Tech Show
Shanghai New International Expo Centre, Shanghai, China
26 - 29 September 2018

China's Top Trade Fairs for Wire, Cable, Tube and Pipe Industry will Grandly Open the Doors from 26th to 29th September in Shanghai !

As the important biennial event for wire, cable, tube and pipe industry in Asia, 8th All China - International Cable & Wire Industry Trade Fair (wire China) and 8th All China - International Tube & Pipe Industry Trade Fair (Tube China) will be held from September 26 to 29 at SNIEC (Shanghai New International Exhibition Center) in Shanghai, China. Concurrently, the organizers once again cooperate with China Fastener Info to hold Fastener Shanghai at Hall E4, bringing together more fastener industry companies and effectively connect upstream and downstream enterprises in related industries.

1,600+ Worldwide Industry Leaders will Showcase Innovative Products Reflecting Cutting-Edge Technology

Under the main theme of the Chinese government's vigorous implementation of the "Belt and Road Initiative" and the "Made in China 2025" strategy, industries such as infrastructure, public transportation, new energy, and building energy conservation have developed rapidly. This undoubtedly helps to create a favorable market environment for cables and wires, and an increasing number of overseas companies which are focusing on the Chinese market.

wire & Tube China 2018 brings together more than 1,600 brands from 31 countries and regions. The exhibition scale will continue to expand, with a total exhibition area of 100,800sqm. In addition to the nine in-door halls, two newly designed outdoor pavilions T1 and T2 offer the possibility for more companies to participate. Eight overseas pavilions from Germany, North America, Italy, Austria, France, Japan, Korea and Taiwan will exhibit at Hall W1 and E1 to get in touch with expert visitors and present international cutting-edge products, technologies and production concepts!
